A fresh voice for audiences large and small, her signature, in demand speaking topics include

Work Life Balance: Can Women Really Have It All?

Can she or can't she have it all. It's the age old question Tameika explores with life experiences and practical strategies to achieve balance in today's busy lifestyle, so you can achieve success in your work while at the same time have happiness and fulfillment in your personal life.

Enjoying Your Journey

We all have a journey filled with ups and downs; twist and turns; challenges and opportunities. But through it all, how you handle those times will define what lessons you learn. Tameika will help you understand how to see the positive in all of life's experiences and learn how to always enjoy the journey no matter what.

Let Your Haters Be Your Motivators

Have you ever been the target of hateful rumors? Are you constantly dodging darts that instigators and jealous people are throwing at you? Tameika discusses how to attack opposition, how to maneuver around roadblocks and create your own opportunities.

Tameika Isaac Devine is also available for media interviews as a political analyst and commentator on women's issues.
